

August 03, 2020

Two Hands on the Wheel

- * Grip the steering wheel with two hands firmly, but not too tightly; you should be able to turn the wheel easily when the vehicle is moving.
- * Driving with one hand while eating or drinking with the other is dangerous.
- * Using the farebox or pole to brace yourself while turning is an unsafe habit.

Two hands on the steering wheel is essential for maintaining control of your vehicle!