

June 20, 2022

Small Children Don't Know Safety and Act Differently Than Adults

- Children do not understand road safety.
- They cannot always identify safe places to cross.
- Small children do not know what traffic signs mean and act on the pictures instead of on their meaning.
- They are easily distracted by other activities, and are unable to cope with sudden changes in traffic or sounds.

